• 2013 Mystery Trip. As you probably know by now the Mystery Trip this year has been cancelled - the first in 17 years. Due to several of our trippers being in ill health and our membership dwindling and other obstacles, we could not get enough travelers to keep the cost of the trip to a reasonable amount. Just a few details of what we had planned: We were going to San Antonio. On the Thursday we were leaving we were going to enjoy a barbecue cookout at a guest ranch and have a singing and story-telling cowboy to entertain us while we made smores around the campfire. On Friday we were going to an Olive Orchard for a tour and lunch and then shopping at the La Vitta Village and a trip to the top of Hemisphere Tower and the 4D show. Later, after Happy Hour at the Drury Inn, we were going to dinner at the Barn Door Steak House. Saturday morning we were going to have a guided bus tour of the missions in San Antonio with lunch at one of San Antonio's most popular restraints, La Fagotta, and then on to the Ranger Creek Distillers & Brewery. They make a brand of whiskey (.38) and about seven different beers on sight. Back at the hotel we were going to have a pizza party and joke telling hour after another nice Happy Hour. Sunday morning we were heading towards home, but not all is over yet. A quick stop at Buckees to stock up on goodies and off to Waco for lunch at the Collin Street Bakery and a tour of the Dr Pepper factory. Arriving home in Garland by dinner time. It was a fun and eventful trip. We had a lot of fun planning it and checking out all the different things. Our Grandson even enjoyed the trip he made with us to check on eating places. Let’s hope for a better turn out next spring.

Jerry and Sally Malone

Editor’s Comment: Jerry and Sally Malone deserve lots of hugs and thank-you’s for planning what we now know would have been a terrific Mystery Trip. We know first-hand how much effort is involved in planning one of these trips, and the Malone’s are experts in the area; we’re saddened it didn’t happen. Thank you Jerry and Sally for your dedication and service to the KK.

- Kuzzin Koncerns: Mildred Rounds is resting at home after suffering a heart attack and spending five days in the hospital. The doctors found a 100% blockage in one of her arteries and she now has a stent in place and is trying to get her stamina back. Jerry is attending cardiac rehab after his heart attack and also having stents installed. Keep this precious couple in your thoughts and prayers as they gain strength and return to their active lifestyle.

- Square Dance Clothing Available: John Goodrum is donating Georgia's KK White & Red Polo Shirts with the Club logo and her blue Club Jacket to any member who wants them. The shirts are Large and the jacket is Medium. (Georgia's name is embroidered on the jacket but that can be taken off and replaced with the new owner's name.) All John asks is that the new owner makes a donation to the KK for whatever amount he/she considers appropriate.
  - Lessons. 15 enthusiastic people are taking square dance lessons and looking forward to graduation on May 7. If you haven't been able to attend lessons, there's still time to get to know our future members.
